

La Ferme Du Roi

6 Bed Property For Sale in St. Brelade

Description

La Ferme du Roi is a distinguished Grade 3 listed country estate, steeped in history and charm, and believed to date back to the early 17th century. This characterful former Jersey farmstead retains a wealth of original features and makes a significant contribution to the appeal of its rural lane setting, with a gable stone dated 1666. Reputed to have provided shelter to King Charles II and his mistress during the English Civil War, the property offers a rare opportunity to acquire a unique piece of Jersey’s heritage in the ever-popular parish of St. Brelade. Set in picturesque and tranquil countryside, the estate comprises a substantial four-bedroom main house and an independent two-bedroom cottage, together providing exceptionally flexible...
